

HanVoice
& the
Citizens' Alliance for North Korean Human Rights and Refugees present

Visions for the Future of the North Korean Human Rights Movement:

A forward-looking discussion and call to action for governments, activists, and all Canadians.

Saturday, March 12th, 2011
2 - 4pm

Jackman Humanities Institute, University of Toronto 170 St. George Street

Speakers: Ji-In Hong - Consul General

Reverend Yoon - Chairman of the Citizens' Alliance for North Korean Human Rights and Refugees

Barry Devolin - Member of Parliament

Panelists: Randall Baran-Chong - Executive Director of HanVoice

Suk Woo Kim - President of the National Development Institute

Pam Shime - Founding Director of the Global Advocacy and Leadership Institute

The discussion will be followed by a brief reception where attendees can meet fellow participants, HanVoice members, and other active Canadians.

The event is free and open to the public.

————— CONTACT: events.hanvoice@gmail.com —————